MEDIA ALERT

"OneStop Business Registration welcomes Non-Profits and all LLC's online"
"Website adds more choices to speed up business registration for computer users"
(For immediate release...)

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah – Beginning in April 2007, Utah's "OneStop Business Registration" website now offers online registration for Non-Profit Organizations and all Limited Liability Companies (LLC) along with a menu of established business formats. "OneStop Business Registration" is a partnership program supported by the following state agencies and city governments; Utah Department of Commerce, Utah State Tax Commission, Utah Department of Workforce Services, Salt Lake City, Sandy City, Provo City and Logan City. Other cities such as Taylorsville and Ogden are also looking to participate in the online service.

"OneStop Business Registration and its invaluable state and city partners are working hard to answer the needs of Utah's business community," said Francine A. Giani, Executive Director of the Department of Commerce, "Now all LLC's and non-profits can join others in the ease of filing online, instead of waiting in line."

With the click of a computer mouse, "OneStop Business Registration" now offers the following online business registration services at: www.business.utah.gov/registration

"The addition of non-profit organizations and all LLCs to register online demonstrates the State's mission to keep costs low and provide fast, convenient services to our citizens and businesses", said Rodney G. Marelli, Executive Director of the Utah Tax Commission.

"We're very pleased to see this expansion of the One Stop Business Registration website", said Kristen Cox, Executive Director of the Department of Workforce Services, "It reflects our commitment to make government services available to our customers at their convenience."

About "OneStop Business Registration"

Utah's "OneStop Business Registration" was introduced in 2003 and was the first program in the U.S. to integrate multiple government agencies into a streamlined, online
